VALIDITY

This warranty agreement is effective starting October 1st. 2005, covering the Auto 2001 Charger, Enerlife Dual Shift Charger, Enerlife Single Shift Charger, Mine Locomotive Vehicle Charger, LT Q Opportunity Charger and the AGV Opportunity Charger.

WARRANTY PERIOD

Staticon Ltd. warrants to original purchases that each unit of equipment of this manufacture is free from defects in materials and workmanship for the stated period (see above) from date of original shipment and not including labour or transportation cost.

CONDITIONS

This Warranty requires that applicable Warranty validation documents (*Return to Staticon for Repair tag) are completed and returned to Staticon Ltd. and the equipment is used for the purposes intended and is handled, stored, operated and maintained under conditions for which it was designed. Staticon reserves the right to judge the validity of Warranty claims and may request the return of faulty components. All faulty control units must be returned for warranty evaluation.

LIMITATIONS

Our Warranty services are limited to the correction of defects by repair to, or the provision of replacement components or modules for, Staticon equipment on an F.O.B. factory basis. Other spare and replacement components are subject to their original manufacturers' warranties. Battery cables/connectors, cabinets and fuses are not included in this Warranty.

SUPERSEDES

This equipment Warranty supersedes all other warranties, liabilities and obligations, whether expressed or implied, unless otherwise documented by Staticon Ltd., except as states above all other warranties and conditions, either express or implied, including implied warranties or merchantability and risk and liability resulting from use of the product.

AUTHORIZATION

Staticon neither assumes nor authorizes any person to assume for Staticon any other liability in connection with the sale or use of the product and there are no oral agreements or warranties collateral to or affecting this written Warranty.
